

Week 9 homeworkDue date is Friday of week 10 at the start of class

We will want to look at your submission during class and discuss various analysis matters with you.

1. Zeroth draft of your project report

You are to submit a skeleton document which contains the title, headings, and subheadings of what you imagine will be in your final draft that is due at the end of week 14.

Your document should contain all figures, graphs, and tables that you expect to include in your final report. Each figure, graph, etc. should have a caption that explains to the eventual reader what is in the figure, graph,... Please place figures, etc. after the appropriate subheading.

Please come to class with two printed copies of your draft.

2. Read Celia Elliott's spring 2021 presentation "How to Get Started if You Hate to Write" that is linked to the P398DLP course documents web page.
