

PHYS 110 – Lecture 5

Today: Safety & Support Services

- Announcements
- Dementro Powell (Campus Safety)
- Assistant Dean John Lantz (Office of the Dean of Students – Student Assistance Center)
- Amanda Carey (Disability Resources & Educational Services)

Only 3 weeks of Phys 110 left!

Don't forget!

- PHYS 110 grade is satisfactory (S) or unsatisfactory (U)

You must:

- Participate in 4 classes by iClicker (for in-person students) or by Zoom (for remote students)
- Complete the Division of Research Safety online Laboratory Safety Training (by Oct. 16), and email the certificate of completion to majones2@illinois.edu

Check course website & gradebook!

<https://courses.physics.illinois.edu/phys110/fa2021/>

University of Illinois Public Safety

University Police Department

Contact →

SERVICES

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

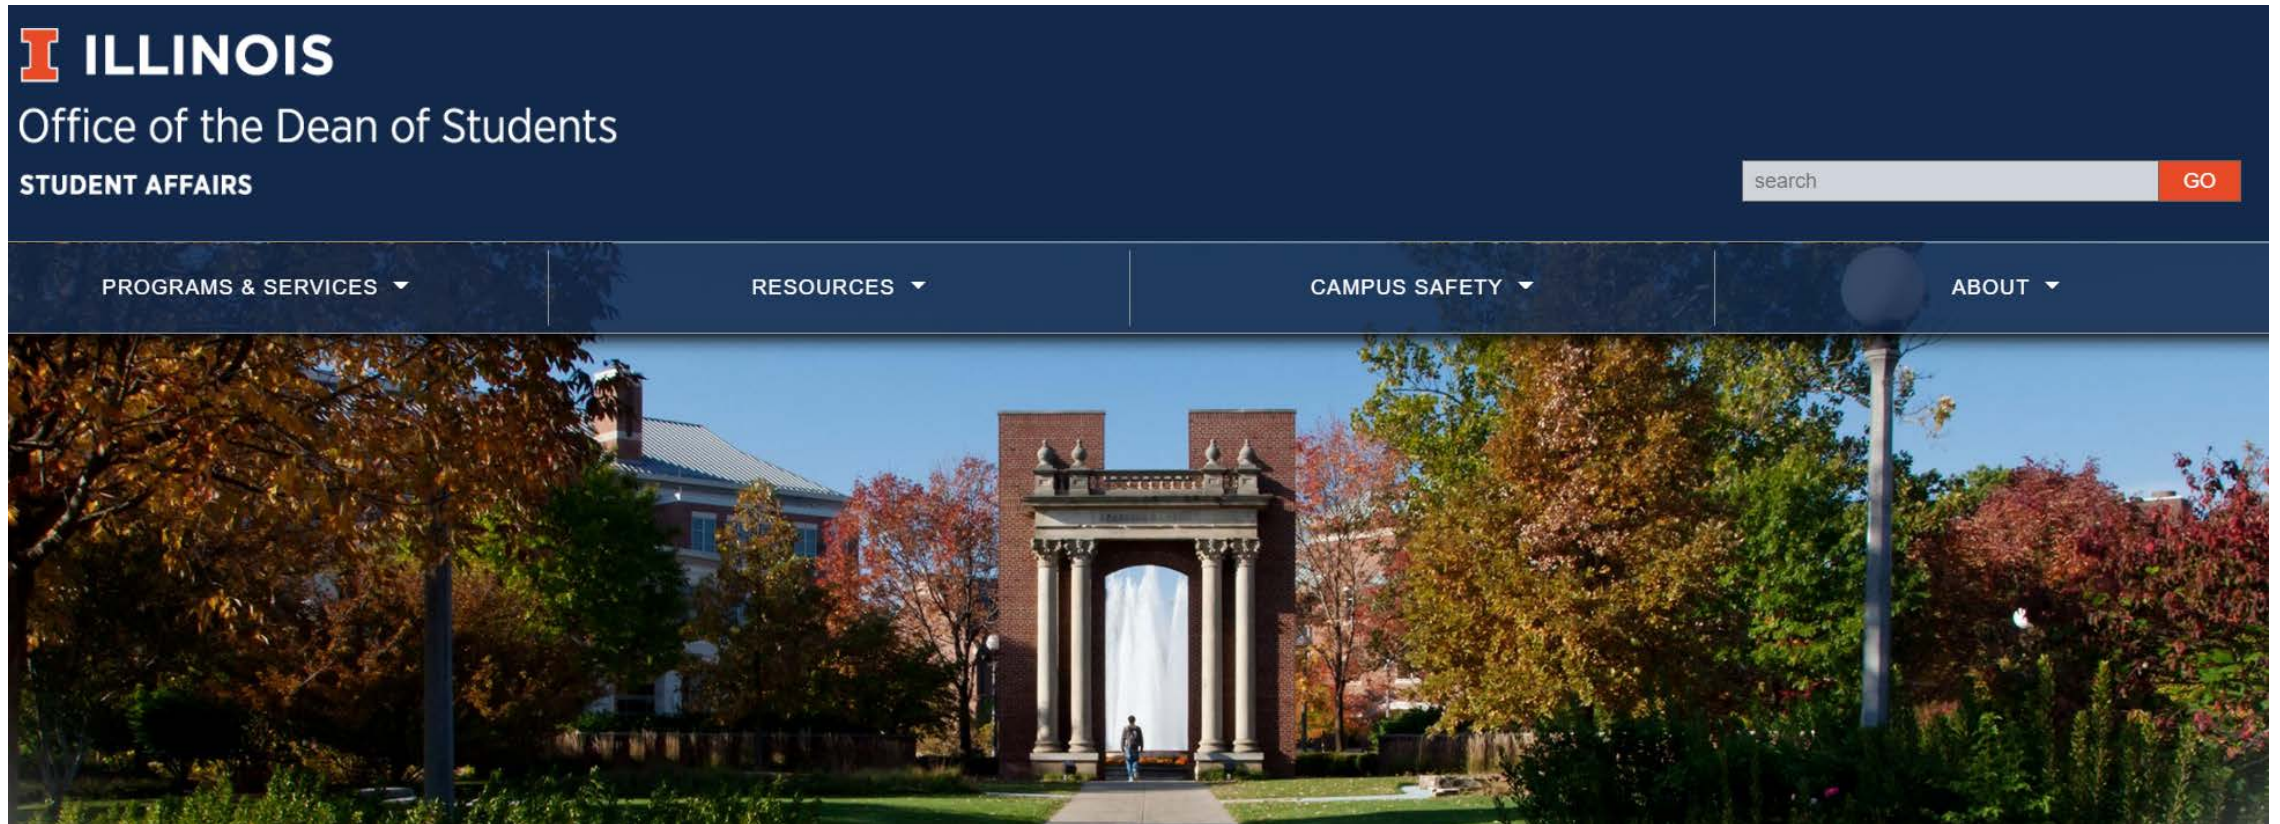

CRIME REPORTING

COVID-19 Response: What you need to know

<https://police.illinois.edu/>

Office of the Dean of Students (ODOS)

<https://odos.illinois.edu/>

Assistant Dean John Lantz

iClicker Question: What are common reasons to contact the Student Assistance Center?

- A. Absence letters
- B. Unexpected health emergency
- C. Academic concerns due to physical/mental health issue
- D. None of the above
- E. All of the above

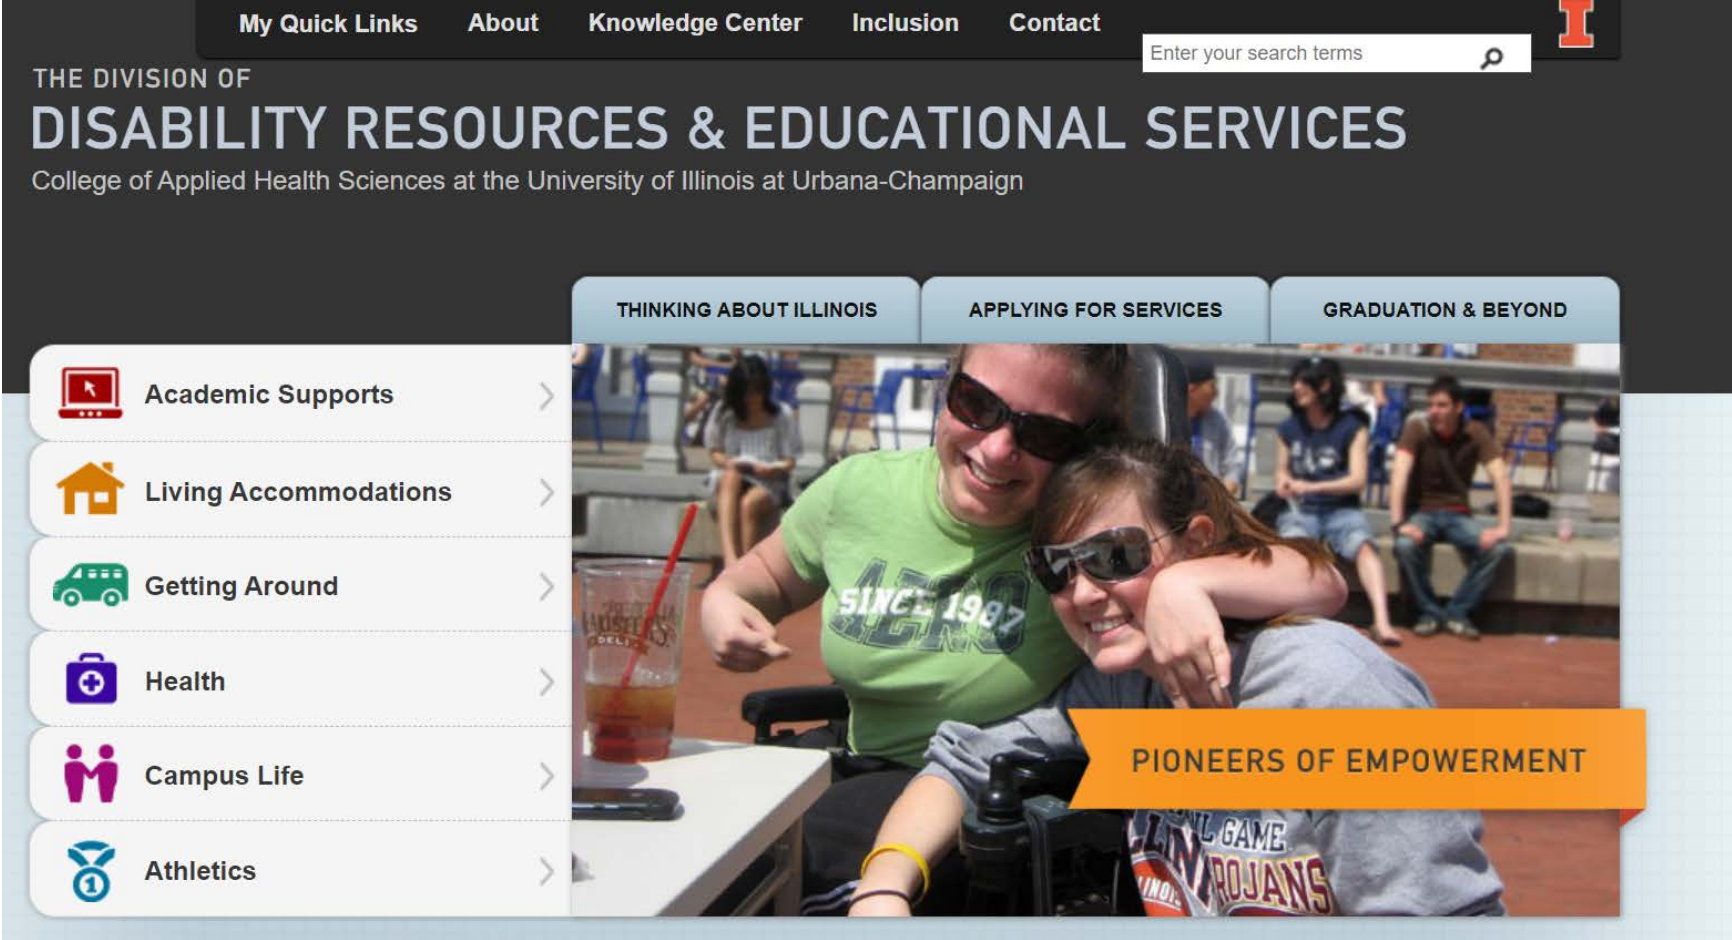

iClicker Question: When should you call the 'Emergency Dean'?

- A. Seeking an absence letter
- B. Emergency that occurs after hours
- C. Missing class due to illness

The Emergency Dean supports students who are experiencing health or safety emergency situations in which an immediate University response is needed and which cannot wait until the next business day.

Disability Resources and Educational Services (DRES)

<https://www.disability.illinois.edu/>

Amanda Carey: Access Specialist

Next week:

Undergraduate research opportunities & faculty panel